

Thoughts About Life

Remember that life is a celebration or can be a celebration. One of the most important things is to teach man how to celebrate.

Abraham Heschel

The world is new to us every morning - this is God's gift; and every man should believe that he is reborn each day.

Baal Shem Tov

We do not succeed in changing things according to our desire, but gradually our desire changes. The situation that we hoped to change because it was unacceptable becomes unimportant. We have not managed to surmount the obstacle, as we were totally determined to do, but life has taken us around it, led us beyond it.

Marcel Proust

One ought to enter old age the way one enters the senior year at a university, in exciting anticipation of consummation. Rich in perspective, experienced in failure, the person advanced in years is capable of shedding prejudices and the fever of vested interests. He does not see any more in every fellow man a person who stands in his way, and competitiveness may cease to be his way of thinking.
